This Cookie Policy explains what cookies are, which ones we use on our website, and how you can manage your preferences.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They help the site function, remember your preferences, and give us insight into how the site is used.

2. Cookies We Use

Category	Purpose	Provider	Consent Required?
Strictly Necessary	Required for the website to function (e.g. security, remembering cookie preferences)	TMPH	No — always on
Analytics	Helps us understand how visitors use our site, so we can improve it	Google Analytics	Yes
Booking Widget	Powers our embedded booking calendar, allowing you to book sessions/parties directly on the site	Calendly	Yes
Marketing / Sign-up Form	Powers our embedded email sign-up form and, if you subscribe, tracks engagement with marketing emails	MailerLite	Yes

3. Managing Your Cookie Preferences

When you first visit our website, you'll be shown a cookie banner where you can accept or reject non-essential cookies (Analytics, Booking Widget, and Marketing categories) by category. You can change your preferences at any time by [insert mechanism, e.g. "clicking 'Cookie Preferences' in the website footer"].

Please note: if you reject Booking Widget cookies, the embedded Calendly calendar may not function, and you'll need to book via [insert alternative, e.g. phone or email] instead.

4. Third-Party Cookies

Some cookies on our site are set by third-party services we use (Google Analytics, Calendly, MailerLite). These providers have their own privacy and cookie policies, which we encourage you to review:

- Google Analytics Privacy Policy
- Calendly Privacy Policy
- MailerLite Privacy Policy

5. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time, including if we add new tools to the website. The version published here at the time of your visit will apply.

This Cookie Policy should be read alongside our [Privacy Policy] and [Terms & Conditions].
